Coming up on "The Capitol Pressroom"

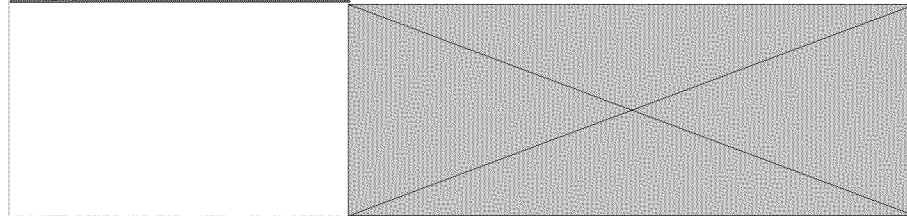

Ashley Hupfl, a Capitol reporter for City & State, shares this week's Winners and Losers.

Yancey Roy, the Albany Bureau Chief for Newsday, will share the news highlights of the week.

We'll have the latest on the water contamination in Hoosick Falls. First, Acting DEC Commissioner Basil Seggos will discuss the progress the state is making at the Saint-Gobain Performance Plastics Site and in the village water supply. Then, EPA Region 2 Administrator Judith Enck will explain the EPA's ongoing response to the contamination.

Gov. Cuomo has proposed subjecting the Legislature to the Freedom of Information Law. Robert Freeman, the executive director of the Committee on Open Government, will analyze the proposal.
